Living the City

CONFERENCE SEPTEMBER 11th 2009

University of Plymouth Roland Levinsky Building 9.30am-5pm

Conference details and booking form at www.acdandc.org.uk or contact e: artsresearch@plymouth.ac.uk tel: 01752 585029
£125 booking until 31 July/ £155 booking after 31 July/ £95 Concessions
Price includes refreshments, lunch and drinks reception at 5.30pm

The Living the City conference focuses on the 'post-regenerated' city and the themes of conservation, culture, transport, habitation and energy.
The speakers are significant makers and shapers of the modern city. The conference will be of interest to architects, planners, urban designers, design champions and national, regional and local policy makers.

Ben Hamilton-Baillie : cities and transport, streets, civility and quality of spaces
Architect and urban designer and expert in street design and transport

Didier Repellin : the role of conservation as regenerator
Inspector General of Historic Buildings /Chief Inspector of Historic Monuments, Lyon, France

Ton Schaap : habitation in the city. How can cities promote genuine mixed uses?
Senior Urban Planner, City of Amsterdam

Gareth Hoskins : the role of culture and cultural institutions in regenerating cities
Architect and director of Gareth Hoskins Architects of Glasgow

Michael Pawlyn : the energy needs of the city and how these affect the shape of the city?
Founder and Director of Exploration Architecture

Chaired by Jeremy Gould Professor of Architecture University of Plymouth

University of Plymouth · Plymouth Architectural Trust · RIBA Plymouth Branch · First Great Western · ACD&C Architecture Centre Devon & Cornwall · CABE