Important information regarding your results

UNIVERSITY OF PLYMOUTH

You have not yet passed all of your modules.
You must complete one or more referral assessments.

Please take a careful look at your transcript. There is a key to the codes used on the reverse.

A three-letter code beginning with R next to one or more elements is a referral code which means you must complete further assessment in that element for the corresponding module. An element is coursework, examination, practice, in-class test or pass/fail assessment. The other two letters indicate whether the referral is at the S same or N next attempt, and how the element will be reassessed.

Your referral will be regarded as: N – Next attempt S – Same attempt* *This does not mean that the referral task will be the same as the original task.	<table border="1" style="margin: auto;"> <tr> <td style="width: 30px; height: 30px; text-align: center; font-size: 24px;">R</td> <td style="width: 30px; height: 30px;"></td> <td style="width: 30px; height: 30px;"></td> </tr> </table>	R			This element will be reassessed by: A – Specified assessment C – Coursework E1 – Examination E2 – OSCE/ISCE P – Practice T – In-class test
R

Here are some examples:

RNC against coursework means that you have been referred in that coursework and must complete reassessment by coursework and this would be regarded as your next attempt.

RNC against examination means that you have been referred in the examination but must complete reassessment by coursework and this would be regarded as your next attempt.

This is what you need to do:

- 1) Now – Please refer to your University email account for information about your referral tasks
- 2) Now – Referral tasks available to download
For elements with referral codes ending in A, C, P or T, download your referral tasks from <https://dle.plymouth.ac.uk/course/view.xxxx>. For some modules, you may be required to complete more than one task, so please ensure that you complete the correct task(s) as stated in your email. If you encounter any difficulties, you must contact your faculty office urgently. Your work must be submitted exactly in accordance with instructions on the website and we must receive all of your completed tasks by the formal deadline of 15.00hrs on Thursday 16 August 2018.
- 3) On Thursday 26 July 2018 – Referral examination timetable published
If you have any elements with a referral code ending in E, you must sit an exam for that module. Examinations take place from Monday 20 August 2018 until Friday 24 August 2018 inclusive and the timetable at www.plymouth.ac.uk/services/exams will list the venue, time & date of each. If you have modified examination provision, your timetable will differ and details will instead be emailed to your university email address. Before sitting your exams, it is extremely important that you familiarise yourself with information at the above website.

4) Friday 10 August 2018 – Deadline to request to repeat modules instead

You can request to repeat all of the modules you have yet to pass over the next academic year instead of completing referrals in them. It is very important that you understand the full implications of doing this and any costs involved. If you are considering doing this, please contact your faculty office before the deadline.

Results of your referrals

Your referral results will be published on Wednesday 12 September 2018. You should receive a new transcript and will also be able to view your referral results on the portal.
