

Peninsula Research in Outdoor Learning (PRinOL)

One-Day Conference

Friday January 18th 2019

10.00am – 4.00pm

University of Plymouth

This is the inaugural event for the Peninsula Research in Outdoor Learning, in which the Outdoor and Experiential Learning Research Network will formally become a Regional Hub for the national network of research hubs, led by the Institute of Outdoor Learning.

The conference aim is to get practitioners and researchers together to learn about the work currently being undertaken in the South-West, and to discuss avenues for potential collaborative projects.

The cost is £15 per person, to include coffee, tea and lunch.

Please register for the conference here

If you have any questions, please contact

Alun, Rowena or Mark:

alun.morgan@plymouth.ac.uk

R.Passy@plymouth.ac.uk

mleather@marjon.ac.uk

