

Part 1 – Mid-Point / Final Interview - Professional Values in Practice

Prioritise People

The student maintains confidentiality in accordance with the NMC code.

The student is non-judgemental, respectful and courteous at all times when interacting with patients/service users/carers and all colleagues

The student maintains the persons privacy and dignity, seeks consent prior to care and advocates on their behalf.

The student is caring, compassionate and sensitive to the needs of others.

The student understands their professional responsibility in adopting and promoting a healthy lifestyle for the well - being of themselves and others.

Practise effectively

The student maintains consistent, safe and person - centred practice.

The student is able to work effectively within the inter - disciplinary team with the intent of building professional relationships.

The student makes a consistent effort to engage in the requisite standards of care and learning based on best available evidence.

Preserve safety

The student demonstrates openness (candour), trustworthiness and integrity.

The student reports any concerns to the appropriate professional member of staff when appropriate e.g. safeguarding.

The student demonstrates the ability to listen, seek clarification and carry out instructions safely.

The student is able to recognise and work within the limitations of own knowledge, skills and professional boundaries and understand that they are responsible for their own actions.

Promote professionalism and trust

The student's personal presentation and dress code is in accordance with the local policy.

The student maintains an appropriate professional attitude regarding punctuality and communicates appropriately if unable to attend placement.

The student demonstrates that they are self - aware and can recognise their own emotions and those of others in different situations.