Important information regarding your results

UNIVERSITY OF PLYMOUTH

You have not passed all of your modules.

You have been invited to repeat modules over the next academic year.

Please take a careful look at your transcript. There is a key to the codes used on the reverse.

A three-letter code beginning with F next to one or more modules indicates that you must repeat the module. The other two letters indicate whether the repeat is as a S same or N next attempt, and what needs to be repeated.

An element is coursework, examination, practice, in-class test or pass/fail assessment.

Here are some examples:

FNO means that you must repeat all elements of the module with attendance over another academic year and this would be regarded as your next attempt.

FNS means that you must repeat the specified elements with attendance over another academic year and this would be regarded as your next attempt.

You must contact the International Student Advice to check that you have enough time remaining on your visa to complete your studies and any other restrictions.

If you do not wish to repeat modules over the next academic year, you may:

○ Suspend your studies

Suspension of studies means taking a year or more out from your studies but remaining registered on your programme. Subject to a 'maximum period of registration', you could later resume your studies. To discuss this option, please contact your faculty.

○ Withdraw from your studies

If you withdraw, you will cease being a student at the University of Plymouth and would need to re-apply if you decided to study at the University in future. If you wish to withdraw or suspend your studies you can find the form and further information here.

If you withdraw from your studies, please note the following:

▪ New transcript

A new transcript will be available confirming that we have amended your records.

• Graduation Ceremony

If you become entitled to an award upon withdrawal, you may be eligible to attend your school's graduation ceremony. Graduation is provisionally scheduled 9th-18th February 2021 subject to the lifting of restrictions on large gatherings. You will receive an email in October when booking is due to open.
