Important information regarding your results

UNIVERSITY OF PLYMOUTH

You have not yet passed all of your modules.
You must complete one or more referral assessments.

Please take a careful look at your transcript. There is a key to the codes used on the reverse.

A three-letter code beginning with R next to one or more elements is a referral code which means you must complete further assessment in that element for the corresponding module. An element is coursework, examination, practice, in-class test or pass/fail assessment. The other two letters indicate whether the referral is as a S same or N next attempt, and how the element will be reassessed.

Here are some examples:

RNC against examination means that you have been referred in the examination but must complete reassessment by coursework and this would be regarded as your next attempt.

Now - Referral tasks You should contact MLA with regard to your referred assessment. If you have any queries on this please contact Lucille.Pearce@mla-uk.com immediately so any problems can be rectified.

For more information about referral and for more detail to accompany the brief points below, please visit <https://www.plymouth.ac.uk/student-life/your-studies/essential-information/results-guidance-notes>
