

PGR ARCHITECTURE SYMPOSIUM

WEDNESDAY
05/05/2021

ZOOM
935 7463 7304

UNIVERSITY OF PLYMOUTH

ARCHITECT
LECTURE

[PART OF THE
DISCOURSES SERIES]

09:00

INTRODUCTIONS

HEALTH

09:15

ADEMOLA AKINBAMI

Effects of daylight on health and productivity of healthcare personnel in different climatic zones.

09:35

RICKY BURKE

A grounded theory of socio spatial relationships in the design of residential care homes for people with dementia diagnoses.

09:55

DISCUSSION

10:15

BREAK

SUSTAINABILITY

10:30

MICHAEL CASSIDY

Spatial robustness: Double-design and the democratisation of space contribution to environmental goals of building longevity with multiple use.

10:50

ADAM GUY

Dark waters - thin places: Revealing, measuring, and communicating the 'value' of rivers.

11:10

DISCUSSION

11:30

BREAK

SMART

11:45

SHADAB BAHREINI

SMART public transport and quality of life in large cities: the shaping of international cases and lessons for development in Tehran.

12:05

CARLOS GARCIA PAKA

The impact of infrastructure Sustainability on Environment: A Case Study of Smart Urbanization in Angola.

12:25

DISCUSSION

12:45

LUNCH BREAK

13:30

RECONVENE

RIVERS

13:45

ZOE LATHAM

Casting a line to place: embodied rituals, cultural landscapes and their potential to (re) connect.

14:05

SALLY SUTTON

Re-imagining the vernacular: Dwelling at the Thames Edge.

14:25

DISCUSSION

14:45

BREAK

KEYNOTE
CONVERSATION WITH

15:00

JEREMY TILL

Architectural research in the face of climate, racial and social justice