IN PARTNERSHIP WITH PLYMOUTH UNIVERSITY

Preparing for Progression to Plymouth University
Before arrival

- Ensure your Plymouth University username and password is working
- Make sure you are checking your Plymouth email account regularly
- Arrange accommodation – see the ‘Plymouth Life’ page on the P2P online tool www.studywithplymouth.ac.uk/progression
- Arrange travel (including travel insurance if required) and familiarise yourself with key travel routes to the campus
- Arrange personal and contents insurance if required
- Do a simple financial plan of your expected costs of being at university, i.e. accommodation, tuition, travel, books, club memberships, field trips, laptop and software etc.
- Complete any documentation require by Plymouth University
- Make sure you access
  wwwstudywithplymouth.ac.uk/progression
to signpost you to key areas and resources
- Make sure you have your Plymouth university student card as you will need this to access and borrow from the library
- Make sure you check your timetables by going to the Plymouth portal, My eDesk/timetables
- Familiarise yourself with your course details, including: Course contents – module information, choices, dissertation topics, assignments, field trips, work placements and planned events (where appropriate)
  https://tulip.plymouth.ac.uk/Pages/programmes.aspx
- Course materials and resources - reading lists, books, equipment, software
- Course structure – timetable, key dates, deadlines – My e-desk/timetables
- Collate any relevant medical records and details of existing medical conditions
- If you feel you may need support with your learning, make contact with relevant support services listed on the ‘Student Life’ page on the online P2P tool
- Run through a checklist of things to take with you if you are moving to student accommodation (http://www.studential.com/checklist may help)
- Download the Mobile with Plymouth University app
- Go onto Tulip and have a look for your programme and module information
  https://tulip.plymouth.ac.uk/Pages/programmes.aspx

On arrival

- Ensure that you bring all Plymouth communications
- Attend any planned Induction events (there are some generic and course specific events)
- Use the ‘Campus Map’ on the P2P online tool to familiarise yourself with the key university buildings i.e. Faculty and School Offices and lecture theatres, library, accommodation blocks, student union etc.
- Familiarise yourself with the campus and the local area
- Register with a Doctor if new to Plymouth
- Visit the Student Union and find out about Freshers’ Week
- Open a bank account (if necessary)
- For any info: Roland Levinsky Building, Gateways/Commons

www.plymouth.ac.uk/studentgateway