Religion and Ethnicity

In order that the University of Plymouth can meet our legal requirements to the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA), the University compiles statistics on the ethnicity and religious beliefs of its students. We will treat your data with respect, and in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). You can find further details on how the University uses your personal details by reading our Information Governance Policies here:

<https://www.plymouth.ac.uk/students-and-family/governance/information-governance/policies>

Please note: Your ethnicity and religious beliefs will not be taken into consideration when assessing your application for the Professional and Generic Skills programme.

Ethnicity

As a requirement of the Race Relations Amendment Act (2000) we need to know your ethnic origin for the purpose of monitoring equality of opportunity to all ethnic groups, highlighting possible inequalities and enabling the implementation of action to remove any barriers and discrimination.

Please select from the categories below (the categories are approved by the Commission for Racial Equality and the Higher Education Statistics Agency). Please ignore the numbers in square brackets.

Your ethnicity and religious beliefs will not be taken into consideration when assessing your suitability for a module.
