

Study Skills for Higher Education 2021-22:
Group sessions to improve your academic skills & knowledge (Dyslexia-friendly)

Topic	Outline: Semester 2	Date & time - Wednesdays	Venue
Overview session to effective Learning and Presenting	A crash course in effective study and presentation skills.	9th February 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 006
Time Management and Organisation Skills	Learn practical strategies that enable you to be more organised and efficient with your time management. Learn how to look after your wellbeing while studying effectively at HE level.	16th February 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 006
Learning Software & Technology	Get to know supportive software available on the campus computers; free and funded technology; learn strategies to integrate effective technology into your learning tasks.	23rd February 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 106
Reading Skills	Learn how to make your reading more effective. This session includes holistic strategies for approaching reading tasks, finding priority information and annotating effectively.	2nd March 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 109
Writing Skills Part 1: Planning & creating useful notes	Learn effective ways of interpreting assignment tasks, how to make effective plans and create useful notes for structuring and planning assignments.	9th March 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 006
Writing Skills Part 2: Structuring, analysing and critical writing	Learn how to develop highly effective ways to structure your assignments for strong analytical and critical content.	16th March 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 006
Improve your Writing Skills Part 3: Proofreading, grammar, referencing and plagiarism	Develop your skills in writing clear and meaningful sentences and paragraphs; learn how to reference accurately and effectively.	23rd March 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 006
Revision Skills & Exam Skills	Learn structured, holistic and multi-sensory approaches to tackling revision and preparing for different types of exams. Learn how to optimise the exam time, decode exam questions, practice timed answers and make the most of examination strategies.	30th March 3.30pm-5pm	Rolle 106