REFUGEE WEEK FILM NIGHTS
2015

“Leave to Remain”
Tuesday 16th June
Based on real-life stories, Leave to Remain is a coming of age drama that follows the lives of three teenage asylum seekers, forced to leave their family, friends and homes behind and learn to live in the UK. Followed by a panel discussion.

“New Walls”
Wednesday 17th June
This documentary portrays the interrupted lives of five refugee women who arrive in Eastern Europe, after fleeing from persecution in their countries of origin in order to seek refuge, safety and a new home. Followed by Q&A with director & producer Paula Palacios.

“Welcome”
Thursday 18th June
A 17-year-old Kurdish refugee in France tries to travel to the UK to reunite with his loved one, but with all legal options exhausted, he resolves that his only option is to make the crossing himself and strikes up a friendship with a swimming instructor. Introduced and chaired by Professor Jill Lewis.

ALL FILMS ARE SHOWN AT:
7PM—9PM   IN:
JILL CRAIGIE CINEMA
Ground Floor, Roland Levinsky Building University of Plymouth PL4 8AA
For further information on the film screenings, contact Rosie Brennan at Plymouth University: rosie.brennan@plymouth.ac.uk