

Peninsula Medical Foundation Data Privacy Statement

Who are you?

Peninsula Medical Foundation (PMF) is an independent charity raising money for Plymouth University Peninsula Schools of Medicine and Dentistry. Colleagues at the University of Plymouth provide us with administration support to engage donors and supporters with our fundraising to support excellence in medical education, research and health & wellbeing.

How do you collect data about me?

PMF or the University acting on its behalf will collect data about you further to any records of meetings that have taken place, subscriptions and enquiries, event registration and attendance and philanthropic activity and donations.

The information will be updated as appropriate through University interactions with you. We continuously review records of University stakeholders to ensure your data is as accurate as possible. We may therefore consult alternative sources in order to do so, e.g. Royal Mail address files, BT phone directories, reviewing job information that you have made available via social media channels, such as LinkedIn or Facebook (as per their Privacy Policies), newspaper articles, company websites and other publicly available sources.

What data do you collect?

We will collect summary data about you including contact details, date of birth, professional affiliations and current employment status and financial transactions. That may be supplemented by information you provide to us and through other sources as explained above.

We do not collect or store any 'sensitive' information unless provided by you for a specific purpose such as disability status for event management.

Any data you provide will be stored securely on the University of Plymouth External Relations database for Peninsula Medical Foundation use only. It will be treated confidentially and in accord with current data protection legislation.

We consider our relationship with you to be ongoing, so we will continue to use your data to contact you unless we hear from you.

What will you do with my data?

If you have confirmed that you would like to receive communications from us, we use your personal information to help us ensure our communications are relevant and where possible of benefit to you. Your data will be used for the following:

- Identify which causes and fundraising themes you are most interested in;
- Contact you to discuss your support;

- Through direct and/or email marketing we will
 - share news, keep you up-to-date and/or invite you to activities and events relevant to your area of interest
 - inform and keep you up-to-date with fundraising achievements and initiatives
 - thank you for your support
 - periodically we may contact you to ensure the data we have remains accurate and up to date

If you have indicated you do not wish to receive communications from us we will only use your data to administer your donation or the event you are attending and you will not receive any further communications from us.

Will my data be shared?

PMF are responsible for your data and will only share your data with the University, who undertake our data administration. We will never sell your data to other companies or charities.

We may also share your data where data processors provide us with a particular service – such as hosting the External Relations database. In these situations, contracts containing appropriate contractual terms around data protection will be in place.

Email communications

PMF or the University may email you as described above. We may ask for your feedback on developments at within your area of interest or ask you to take part in research that we are undertaking. If at any point you would like to stop receiving emails from the Peninsula Medical Foundation please use the unsubscribe link at the foot of an email or email peninsulafoundation@plymouth.ac.uk

If you choose to opt-out of receiving communications please note we will retain minimal information in order to ensure you receive no further correspondence from us.

The team may use MailChimp to send emails so your email address will be stored in the US. You can view MailChimp's Privacy Policy and their registration with the Privacy Shield.

Statutory information

- The data controller is the Peninsula Medical Foundation and Plymouth processes data on its behalf
- The University of Plymouth's data protection representative can be contacted at foi@plymouth.ac.uk
- We will handle your information in accordance with the legitimate interests of the University and PMF, and your consent. If you wish to withdraw your consent, you may do so at any point by contacting the Peninsula Medical Foundation at peninsulafoundation@plymouth.ac.uk Please note that we would still retain your summary record in order to prevent you being contacted again.
- You have the right to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your data; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); to object to communications or direct marketing; and to transfer your data electronically to a third party (data portability). Please contact peninsulafoundation@plymouth.ac.uk should you wish to exercise your rights.
- You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>